PROCEEDINGS (IN CHAMBERS): COURT ORDER

On March 4, 2016, this Court issued an Order to Show Cause ("OSC") to Defendant Residential Credit Solutions, Inc. ("Residential") that required it to provide citations to controlling precedent (i.e. Supreme Court or Ninth Circuit cases) which would demonstrate that the approach which this Court has taken in the past (i.e. that use of the California non-monetary status procedure does not impact diversity of citizenship considerations in federal court) is incorrect. See Docket No. 17. Residential has provided a response, but it fails to cite to any such controlling precedent. See Docket No. 25. Consequently, for reasons stated in the OSC, this action is dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and remanded back to state court.
